

HYRUM DANIEL AND BERTHA KINSEY BATES

Hyrum Daniel Bates, son of John Bates, Jr. and Lucina Angeline Keller, was born Sept. 5, 1870. He married Bertha Kinsey Sept. 15, 1890 at Evanston, Wyoming. She was born Oct. 31, 1870 in Burton Onteret, England to George Kinsey and Eliza Bates. Eliza was John Bates Sr.'s oldest daughter. Hyrum died Dec. 21, 1940. Bertha died Oct. 31, 1947.

Bertha came with her parents to America when just a small child and they made their way across the plains under many hardships.

Hyrum D. was a very active, honest, hard working boy. He herded cattle many long hours. He worked with his father cutting logs to build fences and to add more room to their home. After this was built, mud and straw, mixed together, had to be put into the places between logs to keep the cold out.

Hyrum and Bertha lived at the ranch awhile, and John Jr. lived with them. Then they moved to Wanship, helping to clear land for farms and making a new road. In 1893, they moved to Park City where Hyrum worked in the Daly Judge mill and acted as a volunteer fireman. He played the accordion and violin.

Bertha was a capable housewife and mother and spent many hours caring for the sick.

The children of Hyrum and Bertha were: Bertha Eliza, Daniel Hyrum, Lizzie Lucina, Walter G. J., Gertrude Emma, Silvia Bell, Annie Ardella, William Edward, Wallace Menrow, Lawrence Arthur and William Bates.

FORREST H. DAYTON

Forrest H. Dayton was born October 16, 1889, in Heber City, Utah, the eighth child and youngest son of Alma T. and Amanda Hudson Dayton.

As a boy, my amusements were baseball, basketball, and dancing. I loved doing those things, and my fancies never turned toward hunting or fishing.

When I was 13 I secured work in Fred Buell's store. Working after school and Saturdays, I filled the shelves with groceries and made deliveries.

In 1909 I worked for Wm. Buys, setting type and running the printing press for the local paper, and I also worked at the Heber City power plant. Then, in 1910, I was at the Murdock power plant at Elkhorn.

On September 14, 1910, I married Nellie Giles, and we made our home in Heber City.

In the spring of 1912, when they started building the Wasatch High School, I helped in the building of that structure.

Having done all different types of jobs in Heber, I added to my list the work performed in the machine shops in Helper, Utah, then on to Eureka, Utah, where I was employed by the Iron Blossom mine as top car man.

In 1918 I moved my family to Heber, for I had employment in the Heber City Exchange Company as manager of the grocery department, then later was given the managership of the hardware department in that store. I totaled up 37 years of nine to six routine with the "Exchange." Then on January 15, 1955, I retired from that company.

I was instrumental in organizing the first fire department in Heber City. I was secretary for some time and then was made assistant chief, and was an active member until 1958. Then, along with the other five charter members, we retired from active duty and were made honorary members.

I have been active in the Church, serving in the YMMIA and acting as Sunday School superintendent, and at present I hold the office of a High Priest.

NELLIE JANE GILES DAYTON

Nellie Jane Giles Dayton was born December 22, 1890, in Heber City, Utah, to Nancy Bithia Shelton and Lorenzo Charles Giles.

Born and reared in beautiful Heber Valley, I have lived here my entire life, in the home where I was born, on First West and Center Streets, with the exception of five years spent in Knightsville, Utah, which we affectionately refer to as a "suburb of Eureka."

When I was five years old my father, who had gone up Lake Creek to cut timber for our winter fuel, was killed by a falling tree. My mother was left with seven children to support and care for, the eldest being a daughter 17 years old and the youngest being two years of age.

I received my education in the old Central School, later destroyed by fire. After my graduation I was employed as a telephone operator by the Mountain States Telephone & Telegraph Co. for two years.

In 1910, September 14th, I was married to Forrest H. Dayton in Heber. The following March we went to the Salt Lake Temple to have our marriage solemnized.

During the first year of our marriage I worked in the dry goods department of the Heber Mercantile Co. Bishop Joseph A. Rasband was manager of the store at the time.

My religious duties have been many. I have taught Primary many years and also have acted as a counselor in the Primary organization. In the Relief Society organization I worked under Sister Rachel Giles. I was both organist and chorister. Then, too, in later years I have kept busy in Relief Society by helping in the music department and also as a visiting teacher.

My husband and I have managed to take vacations whenever it was possible, and the one I enjoyed the most was the trip taken to see the pageant at the Hill Cumorah in New York state, and to view all the places of Church interest enroute.

I have five children, 16 grandchildren, and 12 great-grandchildren.

Our children are: Helen (Leo Cluff), Dorothy (Willard Kohler), Bert (Dortha Duke), Merle (Mark Rasband), Earl (Donna Moulton).

THE WASATCH

Forrest Dayton to Be Honored on 80th Birthday

MR. FORREST DAYTON

Mr. Forrest Dayton will be honored on the advent of his 80th birthday with an open house celebration.

It will be held on Sunday, October 19, from 2 to 5 p. m. at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Les Cluff, 257 East Center in Heber City.

All friends and relatives are invited to attend.

No gifts, please.

JOHN WILLIAM GILES

John William Giles, son of William Giles and Christina Carlile, was born March 17, 1869, in Heber City, Utah. From a very humble start as a pioneer boy, he raised to prominence and became a community leader.

On November 23, 1892, in the Logan Temple, he married Rachel Ann Taylor. He was the father of six children: Mrs. John E. Danielson (Ella), Mrs. Earl Smith (May), Taylor, Mont., who married Lorraine Murdock, Mrs. W. C. Wilcox (Sophrona), Mrs. Floyd Kinsey (Viola), and two foster children, Mrs. Leon Ritchie (Elda Robbins) and John Curtis Robbins, who married Glenna Lawrence, were reared in his home. Taylor passed away during the influenza epidemic, while serving as an LDS missionary in the Northern States.

His Church and civic activities were many and successful. He was a city councilman many years and helped organize and was a member of the first board of directors of the Wasatch Chamber of Commerce. He served as president of the North Field Irrigation Co. and also as president of the Provo River Water Users' Protective Assn. He was a member of the fire board and served long as a member of the light and power board, during which time he experienced the installation of the "white way" lighting system along Heber City's Main Street. Distinction came to him when he was asked to serve on the Wasatch County fair board and help organize the Wasatch County Fair. He was chairman of the barbecue committee for many years, during which time thousands of people enjoyed delicious barbecued sandwiches prepared by him at "fair time."

He was ward collector and enjoyed planning and helping at the time Heber Second Ward chapel was erected.

He had special enthusiasm and ability in road building, most roads in Wasatch County bearing his marks of improvement.

Without compensation, save the satisfaction and joy of seeing children and friends have paths by which to go to school and to work, early winter mornings found him plowing paths through the deep snow with his home-made plow and trusty team. This service was done over all the city streets.

He had many friends among the Indians. Oftentimes his back yard was a welcome campsite for Uncle Jesse Copperfield and others during their shopping days in Heber. They were always welcome guests at his table for meals. He was the recipient of many Indian gifts and relics because of his acts of friendship and kindness.

He was a pioneer livestock man, riding the range in both winter and summer. An interesting side occupation he enjoyed very much was that of freighting for the Heber Mercantile Co.

He was a true friend, no person ever being turned away hungry from his home or camp.

He died from a sudden heart attack on July 8, 1942.

RACHEL ANN TAYLOR GILES

The 24th day of September, 1872, heralded the arrival of little Rachel Ann Taylor, the third child born to Mary Horrocks and Joseph Walker Taylor. Ann, born April 11, 1868, died suddenly when a little past a year old. Alice was 2½ when Rachel Ann was born and was delighted to have a new little sister.

Father Joseph worked hard to support his little family. He had many plans to provide the best for his two small daughters, but in the late summer, just two years after Rachel's birth, he took pneumonia while herding his cattle in the foothills of Santaquin, Utah, and the illness took his life September 21, 1875.

Grief-stricken, Mother Mary packed her belongings and left Rachel's birth place, Santaquin, to live in Heber, Wasatch County, Utah, where she could be near her parents.

Rachel Ann was unable to attend school until she was eight years old. The loss of her father left the family in serious financial straits and there was little money to spare for education. However, she gratefully attended the old Sleepy Hollow School between the ages of eight and 11.

She herded cows along the ditch banks during her summer vacations, and while she kept her lonely watch she sewed clothes for her little doll from scraps found among her mother's "rug rags." This humble beginning saw her develop into one of the finest seamstresses in Heber Valley.

Mother Mary was industrious, making rugs and carpets to earn a living for her and her three daughters. (After moving to Heber she married William Cook and by him had another daughter, Mary Elizabeth. Mary and William didn't live together long and this left Mary to care for her small children alone as before.) But for all her efforts, she could not meet the ever-growing needs of her family, and Rachel Ann was forced to leave school at the age of 11 to help out. She was employed by President Abram Hatch to clean house and help care for his seven children. She also worked for Tom Hicken, Dave Hicken, and Sarah Buys.

She had little time for recreation, but managed to find time to sing in the ward choir, under the direction of Sam Wing. She had a sweet soprano voice and was a member of the choir 17 years.

Another choir member was John William Giles, a handsome bass singer. Sometimes after choir rehearsal they would join a square dancing group in the "Old Hall" and for a time Rachel could forget the responsibilities which were heaped upon her young shoulders.

Their friendship grew to love and eventually "Will" proposed. On a cold November day, when she was but 19, they set off in a horse-drawn carriage on a 24-hour journey to Logan, Utah, where they were married in the Logan LDS Temple on November 23, 1892.

The couple made their home in a neat one-room structure on First West and Second South Streets, which was frequently enlarged to meet the needs of their growing family. Two daughters, Ella LaPreal and Annie May; two sons, Taylor and William Montell, and finally two more daughters, Mary Sophrona and Viola, were born of this marriage. They also reared two small children of a nephew, Hyrum W. Robbins, whose wife died from influenza. They were John Curtis and Elda, and they have been to Rachel, William and their family a son and a daughter, a brother and a sister.

Rachel Ann was called to be a Relief Society visiting teacher in August of 1905, when her third daughter, Sophrona, was only eight days old. She served in this position two years, when she was released to become second counselor to Heber Second Ward Relief Society. Because of her faithful service she was soon made first counselor, and in September, 1919, she was set apart as Relief Society president of Heber Second Ward, Wasatch Stake.

During her service in the Relief Society she was frequently called to leave her family (often in the middle of the night) to care for the sick, the dying, and to prepare the dead for burial. She was particularly hard-pressed during the influenza epidemic in 1918.

It was this same epidemic which took the life of her eldest son, Taylor, as he completed his twentieth month as a missionary in the Northern States Mission. His sudden death while in the service of the Lord was a great test of faith for the entire family. But because they had a testimony of the gospel they passed the test with the realization that they were parted from their son and brother for only a short time.

Rachel Ann became well known throughout Wasatch County as a fine and dependable seamstress. Because she was constantly striving for perfection she acquired the exacting arts of cutting, fitting and expert finishing. Her greatest delight is her beautiful cut-work embroidery and her elegant quilting. She has won many blue ribbons at the Wasatch County Fair and at the Utah State Fair. At the age of 81 she was awarded the grand championship ribbon at the Wasatch County Fair for her individual display.

She was widowed in 1942, when a sudden heart attack claimed William, her partner of almost 50 years. Because of her understanding of the teachings of the gospel and her diligence in rearing a good and loyal family she has never been alone. She can honestly say, "I have lived a good life," for she has been faithful to her membership in The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and faithful to her duties as a wife and mother. Her posterity, eight children (including her two "foster" children), 20 grandchildren, and 33 great-grandchildren, look upon her with great love and respect.

ADDISON ALONZO AND
JEAN LINDSAY HICKEN

Addison Alonzo Hicken was born in Heber, Utah, July 10, 1876, to Orson and Emily ~~Rebeck~~ Hicken. He married Jean Lindsay on December 13, 1905. She is the daughter of James and Agnes Watson Lindsay, and was born at Center Creek on March 17, 1886. To them were born three children: Morris, Velma and Emolean.

After Alonzo's death, February 12, 1942, Jean married William Horner in March, 1949. He died January 2, 1953.

Alonzo, or Lon, as he was called by everyone, was a farmer and stockman. He spent his early life helping his father on the farm and doing odd jobs, such as hauling wool from the Eastern sheep herds. This would take about a week to go and return to Heber. He drove a four-horse team hitched to a trailer wagon loaded high with wool sacks. The wool was shipped by train from Heber. He was a farmer and sheep and cattle raiser.

He was a very active worker in the R. C. Society and all things that needed for both San Carlos and Heber C. A. 992-3

Parcell Retires From Safeway After 35 Years

Wave 30 Aug 1984

Harris Parcell

After more than 35 years of service to Safeway and as a retail merchant in the town of Heber City, to the people of Heber Valley and to the thousands upon thousands who have stopped in on their way through, Harris Parcell has officially retired as manager of the Heber Valley Safeway Store.

Many people will miss "Happy Harris" including those he currently worked with and those he has helped train and promote to being successful leaders and managers. Also many customers who enjoyed Harris will miss his cheerful, efficient help he always offered. His career in the grocery business began with two years as a meat cutter (1946-48) with the Heber Exchange Company prior to joining Safeway in Heber City in August of 1949 as a food clerk earning $43.00 a (six plus day) week.

Harris' Safeway career has been spent entirely in Heber City where he first became Store Manager in January 1954. He subsequently managed the next two stores in Heber, each he other including one down during a cold Harris worked on assignment with the store stocking crew traveling to various Safeway locations, for just over four months.

Raised and educated in the Heber area, Harris has also been an active citizen in the community by participation in 12 years as a volunteer fireman, member of the School Board, active in the LDS church, and helping his wife Phyllis, raise a family of five children. He has indeed been involved and busy.

We wish Harris a well earned and enjoyable retirement. Enjoy Harris, you will be missed by many people in our community.

Earl Smith Celebrates 90th Birthday

Earl H. Smith

Earl H. Smith, now residing in Mesa, Arizona with his wife Edna, will celebrate his 90th birthday on May 18th. He was born in Charleston on May 18, 1896. While a baby, his family moved to Park City for a few years. When they moved back to Heber in 1911, he remembers driving their milk cow from Park City to Heber on his pony. He recalls attending 9th grade on the top floor of the old Heber Mercantile and his woodshop class was held under the old bank building on the same corner.

One of the things he got the most pleasure out of was organizing the Little League Baseball program in the valley. He still has a great love for the game of baseball.

He served the Heber Valley for many years as a volunteer Fireman being one of the twelve members of the first department. He recalls fighting fires using wooden candy buckets which Add Averett furnished. He was Fire Chief from 1944-1949. He served 15 years as an elected Trustee in the Utah State Firemen's Association. Last June, he was honored at the State Firemen's Convention for 60 years of service.

Earl and his sons operated a meat and grocery business for many years.

He has 3 sons living in Heber. They are Don, Doyle and Jerry. His son Blaine lives in Evanston and another son, Jay lives in Arizona. He has 2 daughters, Pauline who lives in Sandy and Gwen who lives in Pleasant Grove.

Earl and Edna are looking forward to spending a week in mid June at the home of his daughter in Pleasant Grove. They hope to have a nice visit with family and friends.
